

This resource is provided through the Until Everyone Can Read:
Children's Books Representing Dyslexic Readers initiative.

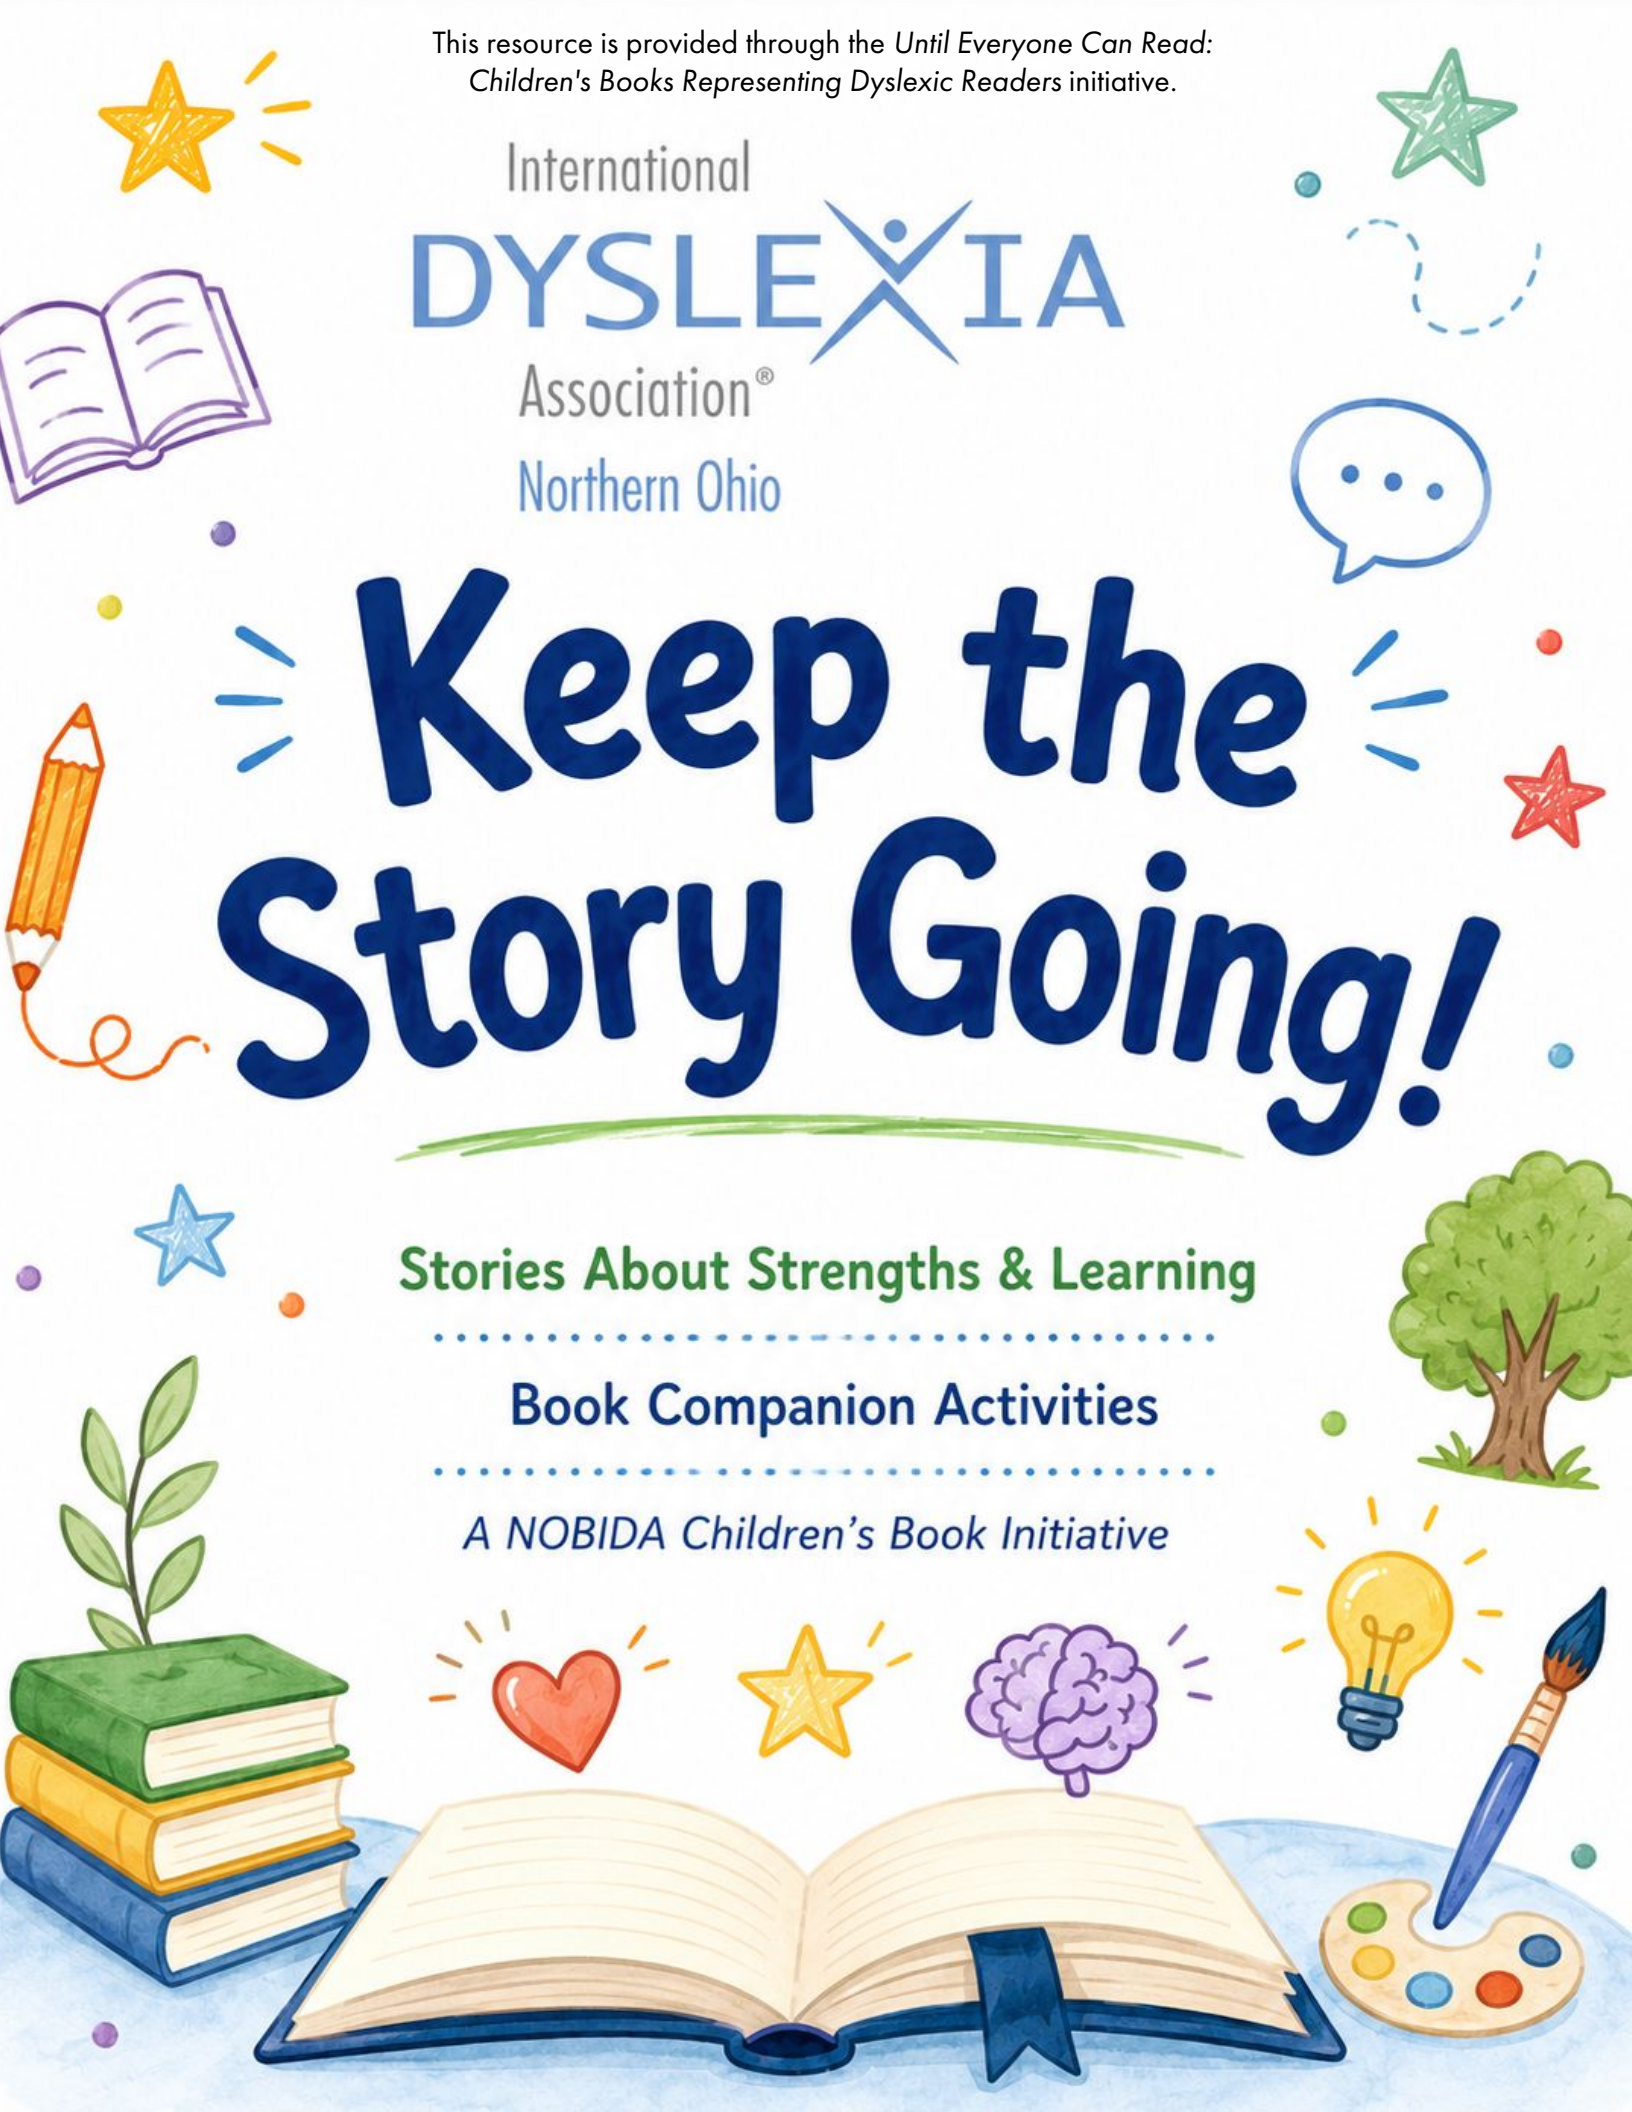

International
DYSLEXIA
Association®
Northern Ohio

Keep the Story Going!

Stories About Strengths & Learning

Book Companion Activities

A NOBIDA Children's Book Initiative

Aaron Slater, Illustrator

My Picture Story

Challenge: Tell a story using only pictures.

Beginning

Middle

End

Circle how your story ends.

Happy

Funny

Surprising

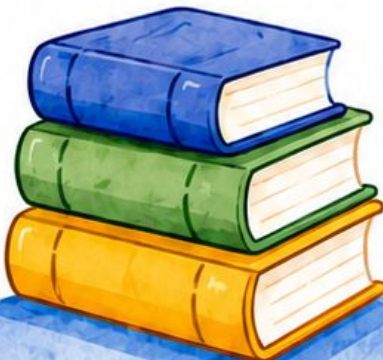

Kind

Exciting

My favorite picture is...

Can someone tell
my story without words?

Brilliant Bea

My Strength Star

Everyone has strengths!

I help others by...

I am really good at...

I love learning about...

Draw
yourself!

I am proud of...

I want to get better
at...

Fish in a Tree

My Strength Card

Everyone has unique talents!

Front

Name: _____

Age: _____

Favorite thing: _____

Back

My biggest strength:

One challenge I have:

One goal:

I help others by:

Hank Zipzer

My Oops Comic

Mistakes help us grow!

1 What happened?

2 Uh oh!

3 How did I solve it?

4 What did I learn?

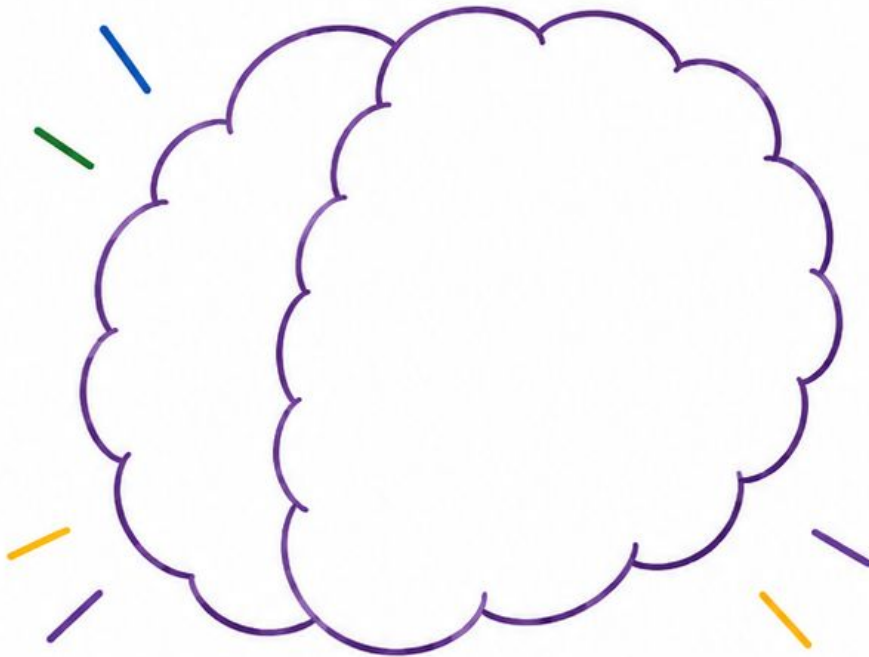

How Your Brain Learns to Read

Power Up Your Reading Brain

There are many ways to help our brains grow!

Draw or write things that help your brain:

Reading

Listening

Talking

Learning

Writing

Braining Challenge!

Write three words that rhyme with each.

cat

sun

bug

Thank You, Mr. Falker

Thank You!
Kind people help us grow.

Front: Draw a picture.

Inside:

Dear _____,

Thank you for helping me _____.

You made me feel _____.

Love, _____

A Walk in the Words

My Learning Path

Learning is a journey!

Something that was hard:

Someone who helped me:

Something I'm
proud of:

My next goal:

I can keep growing!