

Fall 2022 Newsletter

Greetings Northern Ohio IDA Community,

It's chilly out there but we have news that'll ignite your advocacy and keep you toasty all winter.

For the first time in 2 years, we held our Annual Symposium IN PERSON, and Rise Up! was a wonderful event.

Connecting, supporting, and advocating with each other makes our work worthwhile. Thank you to all attendees and supporters of our mission as we celebrated Dyslexia awareness all through October!

We are extremely proud to share our enlightening recorded Rise Up! Panel Q&A Discussion with our 4 rockstar literacy experts moderated by our very own Kerry Agins.

Recorded video access registration is open! If you were unable to attend in person, we invite you to purchase access and watch all 4 of our Rise Up! presentations this December 15th-June 15th, 2023.

Continue reading and find our Symposium wrap-up and summer learning opportunities.

As always, reach out with comments and questions. Our community is here to support you and help you find helpful resources.

Have a wonderful winter!

34th Annual Symposium Overview

Panel Q&A Discussion

- NOBIDA's FREE, inspiring, and lively Panel Q&A discussion was hosted after our annual open board meeting on Thursday, Oct. 20th, 2022.
- Our equity-focused "not to be missed" Panel Q&A discussion was recorded and is now ready to be viewed via our website and other media outlets.
- Consider the Panel Q&A only a short preview of what each speaker offered in their Symposium presentations.
- Register to gain access to those videos HERE.

We'd love for you to share the Panel Q&A video with your community!

Kareem Weaver, Dr. Rebecca Tolson, Dr. Elsa Cardenas-Hagan, Kerry Agins, and Dr. Tracy White-Weeden
